Candidates Next Year

"Back to the constitution" was the slogan enunciated by Harry St. George Tucker when he announced his entry into the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination That slogan has been considered several days by a few of the old-time politicians, and they agree that it can and will be met by the counter slogan of "Law and order" The two would serve to rally all classes for if the constitution is to be the final resort of the people of the country there will neces sarily follow law and order. When Mr. Tucker appears on the hustings he will be given opportunity to state and ex plain what he means by "Back to the constitution"

That there are more people in Virginia interested in the gubernatorial fight of n xt year than in the presidential contest of this year is said to be plain. The candidates are beginning to show restlessness and to be chafing at restraint, but they are compelled to await the disposition of the presidency before they complicate matters by appealing to the voters for the highest honor the state can bestow. With the statement that Congressman Flood and Senator Mapp would take a chance at the prize at the proper time there has arisen a good deal of comment. With four men in the race there would be much to engage at tention.

Members of Congress who have been to their homes from Washington recently report their surprise that the farming interests along the routes they traveled are not up to what they should be, in fact, they said farm work in many localities is at a stand still. The supply of hay at Dillwyn was exhausted except a supply at one business house and they were only selling to their customers. I will furnish corn, flour, meat, hay, or any other farm products to men who work for me, but I don't sell for money except to those who I know are so situated that they cannot. I have been on many farms in this district in the last few weeks and I find the prospect for wheat is not at all flattering, wheat is quoted on the market at near $3 a bushel. In some places the people have formed overall clubs and khaki clubs, and the members will wear nothing else, and while this was going on the price of overalls advanced from $2 to $6

Miss John Taylor and Miss Sadie Elwards were recently married in Richmond, and will make their home in Covington,

Va.

There has been several big fires here the past week. Mr. Thomas H Hall and J. P. Andrews are fire wardens. I organized a little band of six men on the Dillwyn road one day last week and whipped out a fire and left a man to watch the place.

Mr. Henry Rosen told me he had sold his place near the Court House bridge

So far in taking school census I have not found any children that are deaf, dum, or blind, but found one negro girl feeble minded. I was right royally entertained at one of my friends houses while taking census, they had a dinner fit for a king.

While I was at Enonville on Tuesday the crowd was gathering to pay the last sad honors to the memory of Miss Margurite Danovant by laying her body to rest, those who read the daily papers will have read of her tragic death which was caused by an accident at Glen Allen when a R. R. train ran into an automobile killing three and wounding two, one of whom has since died.

Rev. Mr Stinson preached at the home of Mrs. George Walton last Saturday, Mrs. Walton is too feeble to go out to church and this servant of God went to her home to preach, and I hear she semd to enjoy the services so much. Mr. and Mrs. George Walton were long considered very devoutly pious people and it was almost a coincidication to be in their presence in their cozy little home.

The central telephone company has raised its rates from $15 to $20 per year for each phone

Hunters say that the rabbits have been dying with some kind of disease and it is a rare thing now to see a nannie cotton tail.

The 2nd Monday in each month used to be Court day here, and there was then an old saying that the fruit was not safe until after May court. The next term of Circuit court is to begin here on May 11th.

Mr. Stinson has gone to work in the wall around the Courthouse, where he left off last fall. Mr. Thomas D. Eason expects to be here next Friday, April 30, to meet Mayesville District school board on business relating to the agricultural department of the High school here.

Dead

MISS CLEM FERGUSON died at the home of her brother, Mr. J. Shelton Ferguson, near Holly wood, on the 31st of March, 1920, in the forty-first year of her age. Miss Ferguson was only sick a few days, she was taken ill while teaching the Hollywood school, and contracted pneumovia. Her death was a suprise and shock to her people and friends. She was numbered among the best of our county teachers. She was a daughter of the late Henry C. Ferguson, and was born and reared on the farm where she died and was laid to rest. She left surviving her four brothers and two sisters, Dr. Meade Ferguson, of Richmond, Wade Ferguson, of Kentucky, H. Winston Ferguson, J. Shelton Ferguson, Mrs. Jno. Watson and Mrs. John Webb, of Hollywood neighborhood, Appomattox county.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. A. Pickrell, who has been her pastor for many years, at the home of her brother, Shelton, on the 1st day of April, and she was laid to rest in the family burying ground where rest the remains of her parents. She will be much missed by her family, to whom she had been a most affectionate sister and aunt, and by her neighbors and friends who knew her to love her, as a woman of real worth, and by her church, where she had worshipped so long and faithfully, as a consecrated and devout member.

Miss Clem is dead to this world, yet her life and spirit will live after her as a monument to her noble traits of character

Thanks

We wish to thank our friends for their kindnesses during the illness and death of our beloved sister, Clem Ferguson.

What next?

Cigarmakers in Tampa, Fla., have refused to work unless a man is appointed to read to them. The work, they say, is too monotonous.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Killman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot...

I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J. 71

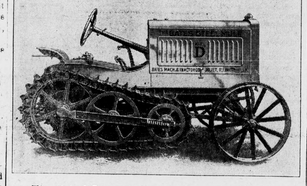
Every Inch of the Bates Steel Mule is Thoroughbred



The United States government by means of the Department of Agriculture, has been looking into the tractor question, and its bulletins clearly proves that the satisfied tractor owner—men who say that the tractor has paid—are men who own the BETTER CLASS of tractors. The successful man has learned years ago that he can't get something for nothing. No one can. The reason the BATES STEEL MULE costs more is that it is worth more. Skilled factory procedure, quantity production and the most modern Machinery enables us to save money at every turn, yet the BATES STEEL MULE cost slightly more in the beginning to build but considerably less in the long run to own. It's just another case where a seemingly higher priced article is far cheapest to own when you come to actually USE it.

The Bates thoroughbred quality comes not from mere claims, but from what's put into it. Every part that goes to make up the BATES STEEL Mule is put there by long field experience. There is't a part that is't time-tried and tested. There is't a part that experience has't dictated the shape and size of; and in it all there is't one superfluous part, nor one part that is't capable of standing up under twice the strain it gets in actual use. These are things for experience and practice have distracted The BATES comes to you as a fulfillment of your desire for a tractor that will endure. Price is what we pay for a thing. Value is what we get out of it. Consider your tractor from what you will get out of it, consider how many working days you have when the ground is wet, consider the operations where you can not afford to pack your seed bed, and consider how consistantly and economically they must be performed even in rush times, you will then see why the BATES STEEL MULE is the biggest value offerd in any tractor on the American market today.
